The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

He took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body."
Then He took a cup, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many."

Mark 14:22,23,24

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

We see our community as one moved by Faith, led by Hope and united in Charity, seeking, as a caring family, to walk in the footsteps of Jesus Christ by reaching out in welcome to all: the young, the old, the stranger, and the neighbor. A Cross-Country Journey

May 17–July 17, 2024

NATIONAL Eucharistic Revival

Jesus is on the move! Four small groups of young adults are in the midst of an epic journey which began at the north, south, east, and west edges of the United States. They are journeying with Jesus in the Eucharist across our whole country, blessing over 6,000 miles of our nation in the shape of a cross. This is the first-ever National Eucharistic Pilgrimage—one of the largest Eucharistic processions in history. Come and meet Jesus on the road! Learn more at: <https://www.eucharisticpilgrimage.org>.

Our parish has been on a Eucharistic journey, too.

- ◆ We began this time last year with hundreds in our midst taking and reading Dr. Brant Pitre's Jesus and the Jewish Roots of the Eucharist.
- ◆ We continued this Fall with our Women's Retreat based on Bishop Robert Barron's This is My Body.
- ◆ We picked up the pace with some 60 members participating in the series "Jesus and the Eucharist" with seven weeks of presentations and small group discussions.

Today's Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ gives us the opportunity of thanking God for the gift of the Eucharist and to see what we can do to promote a more authentic Eucharistic sense of devotion in our Parish. Interested? Call or email the Rectory with your name and contact to participate in proposing a next-step forward for the Parish.

OUR LADY STAR OF THE SEA PARISH

Marblehead, Massachusetts

June 2, 2024
The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Dear Parishioner of Our Lady Star of the Sea,

We celebrate today a Solemnity in honor of the gift of the Eucharist. The first phrase of St. Mark's account of the Last Supper is instructive in its disarming simplicity: "While they were eating..." (see Mk 14:12-26). In the context of the Bible, the phrase not only sets the immediate scene of table conviviality, but reaches way back to the first moments of our human family, then lost in our consumption of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil "While they were eating..." The disciples at table are busy reaching, passing, sharing and enjoying gifts of nourishment. Jesus, however, is readying something else, spectacular. Humanity is intimated as busily occupied with millennia of providing, buying, selling and consuming unawares of what is about to be manifest. Jesus, however, is readying something unheard of that will change all.

"While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, gave it to them, and said, 'Take it; this is my body.'" While they were eating, Jesus is consumed with a total love for them. That love, that life becomes their true nourishment and strength. While the world has been eating, Jesus has readied a sacrifice of living love that will surpass and change all measurement and containment. Jesus pours out his heart that they and we be filled no longer with passing things, but that we might be awash in a rising tide that lifts us beyond give-and-take to the all-in of God's own life and love. It is a gift received; it is to be a gift enacted and shared. Jesus gives of his life, his self, and his life's energies right to the last drop, poured out as a gift of love so as to win, by that loving gift, our salvation. And he invites you and me to "do this," that is, to pour out our own lives as a gift of love as did he.

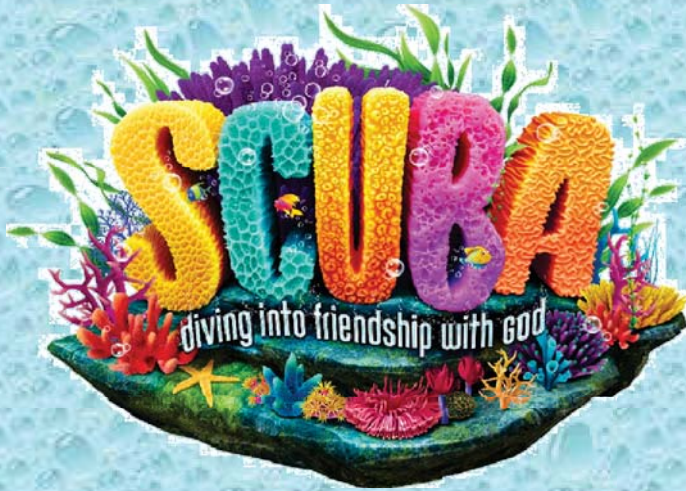

The measure of love we encounter in the Most Holy Body and Blood of the Lord is the measure that he invites you to give each day. Receiving the Lord is being with the Lord and is the Lord, through you, being with the world in a new way. The further contemplation of that measure, that nourishment and that gifting is the main purpose of our adoration and worship of the gift of the Eucharist. A well-balanced and complete Catholic life always includes quiet prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. When was the last time you dropped by the Church during the week to spend some time in prayer before the Eucharist? It is open daily; you are always invited. We have a difficult time conveying the full import of the words that express Jesus' gift of himself for our salvation. How much more do your mind and heart need to spend time stretching, exploring, reflecting and being energized by the wonder and power of the Eucharist that Jesus left us as a gift of his abiding presence in our midst? This Solemnity of Corpus Christi is a good time to renew our commitment to prayer before the Blessed Sacrament as a usual part of our life and love.

If you are interested in promoting within our Parish community new opportunities for Eucharistic celebration, adoration and exposition please call or email the rectory with your name and best contact. I would like to assemble and work with a group to come up with a good proposal for Eucharistic Renewal in our midst.

Yours in the Lord's service,

Msgr. Timothy J. Moran

THANK YOU FOR CELEBRATING MY MASTER’S GRADUATION.

As I reflect on my journey through graduate school, I am filled with immense gratitude to Monsignor Timothy Moran and the wonderful people of Our Lady Star of the Sea parish Marblehead for the role you played in making my master’s graduation party a memorable occasion.

Your presence at the celebration meant the world to me. Your warm wishes, encouraging words, and genuine smiles added to the joy of the day. Whether it was helping with the decorations, preparing delicious food and gifts or simply being there to share in the excitement, your support did not go unnoticed. I am fortunate to have friends like you who stood by me during study sessions, cheered me on during challenging times, and celebrated my achievements. Your friendship has been a beacon of light, and I am truly thankful.

As I step into this new chapter of my life, I carry with me the memories of our time together. The laughter, the camaraderie, and the shared dreams, all of it has shaped my graduate experience in profound ways.

Thank you for being a part of my journey. Your kindness and friendship have made a lasting impact, and I look forward to creating more beautiful memories together as we work together in our parish.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Rev. Fr. Stephen Arinzechukwu Okoli, SMMM.

Stephen and Elaine Leahy your questions and suggestions: eleahy10@yahoo.com.

Corpus Christi

The Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ is commonly known by its old name in Latin: Corpus Christi, meaning the Body of Christ https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Feast_of_Corpus_Christi. For centuries the solemnity referred principally to the Body of Christ in the sacred host. Eventually, a separate feast of the Precious Blood was established. Finally, in the past century, the feast of the Precious Blood was merged into the more ancient celebration, since the Body and Blood of Christ are, as St. Thomas Aquinas explained, inseparable since the resurrection. Whether one eats the sacred host or drinks from the sacred chalice, one consumes both the Body and Blood of Christ. The Blessed Sacrament is an almost unimaginable gift to us: the sacramental way in which, above all others, Jesus fulfills his promise to be with us always and which brings eternal life.

Once more I encourage you to meditate prayerfully on the beautiful hymns St. Thomas Aquinas composed for the celebration. They are a wonderful synopsis of the theology of the Blessed Sacrament. In my opinion, the Lauda Sion, the Sequence for today's Mass, is the apex of them https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Lauda_Sion. I should also mention the Pange Lingua, which is sung on Holy Thursday and from which the Tantum Ergo is taken. You can find both in the Missalette.

June In June, the Church observes a month in honor of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, the symbol of the unconditional love of God for each one of us, for every human being. You might want to pray the Litany of the Sacred Heart, which leads us to reflect on the multi-faceted meaning of the Sacred Heart for us <https://www.usccb.org/prayers/litany-sacred-heart-jesus>.

In secular society, June is often designated Pride Month to celebrate "Gay Pride." For Catholics this creates something of a dilemma: "Darned if you do, darned if you don't." As the bishops of the U.S. put it in their feedback report to the Synod on Synodality, there is a "tension between a welcoming spirit and the need to articulate Church teaching." We don't want to foster an impression which some have that "the Church hates gays" because of our teachings. We also don't want to give the impression that we condone immoral behavior in which some homosexuals (and heterosexuals) engage. My personal opinion is that at this time it is good for us to acknowledge that there has been unjust discrimination against homosexuals (which the Church condemns) and that we call upon all people to accept them with "respect, compassion, and sensitivity. Rarely is there a movement or organization which is all good or all bad, so we look for elements which we can agree and cooperate with. At the very least it seems to me that disparaging "Gay Pride" altogether would go too far, just as endorsing all manifestations of "Gay Pride," no matter how outrageous, would go way too far in the opposite direction. Respect is needed.

This week The Memorial of St. Charles Lwanga and Companions is on June 3. They were twenty-two young Ugandans who were martyred from 1885 to 1887 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Charles_Lwanga.

June 5 is the Memorial of Boniface, O.S.B., the "apostle of Germany," martyr. He came from England, became bishop of Mainz, traveled widely spreading the faith, and was martyred in 754 https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Saint_Boniface.

The Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus falls on June 7 this year. The devotion to the Sacred Heart developed gradually over several centuries and received its fullest expression through a series of visions granted to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque from 1673 through 1675. Promoted by the Visitation nuns and the Society of Jesus, the devotion gained wide popularity and the approval of various popes https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Sacred_Heart.

Enjoy the spring.
